In fact, Abraham Lincoln is not seen as much of a hero at all among many American Indian tribes and Native peoples of the United States, as the majority of his policies proved to be detrimental to ...

Washington Monthly | Lincoln: No Hero to Native Americans

The traumatic experience of his father, Lincoln's own testimony to the importance of that story, and the knowledge that Thomas Lincoln enjoyed telling other harrowing tales of Indian violence suggests Lincoln's view of Native Americans prior to this point was, at least, uneasy.
