No more than 10 errors per 100 words, including words that you had to tell your child, is acceptable. Child must also demonstrate comprehension. This would be considered the Instructional level. 94% accuracy and above is the Independent level ~ your child can read and comprehend without any instruction. (In other words, 6 errors or less per 100 words.)

Whole language describes a literacy philosophy which emphasizes that children should focus on meaning and strategy instruction. It is often contrasted with phonics-based methods of teaching reading and writing which emphasize instruction for decoding and spelling. However, from whole language practitioners' perspective, this view is erroneous and sets up a false dichotomy.
