This entire process took me an embarrassingly long stretch of time"I didn't keep close track, but I'd say four or five months. Of course my work wasn't constant, but rather, as all my work is, sporadic and crammed into naptime and preschool time and the ten minutes I can grab at any given moment during my hectically joyful days of parenting a two-year-old, being pregnant, managing a ...

One day, when my brother was 18, he waltzed into the living room and proudly announced to my mother and me that one day he was going to be a senator. My mom probably gave him the "That's nice, dear," treatment while I'm sure I was distracted by a bowl of Cheerios or something. But for fifteen years, this purpose informed all of my brother's life decisions: what he studied in school ...

Great article. We are in the process of paying down debt, and the freedom we feel in watching that number decrease is a beautiful thing! Doing something RIGHT AWAY is key because, as your chart above shows, the greater the amount of money going into paying debt, the less you have to spend (even on the things you truly need!), so the debt pile increases and you never get out from under it.
